

LE ONLY- Responding to Active Assailants

This 2-Day course is designed to offer law enforcement first responder personnel the knowledge, based on tactics and movement principles, to defeat the actions of the violent offender. Today, it is critical that officers responding to the report of an "active shooter incidents" have the knowledge and skillset to respond quickly, intelligently, and confidently to maintain the tactical advantage and defeat the threat. This course will focus on various aspects of officer response, from multi-officer team engagements to single officer response.

At the completion of this training, students will be versed in the following subjects allowing them to safely and successfully complete their designated work assignment.

Safety

Immediate Team Organization

Assault Planning/Approach and immediate Preparation

Single Officer and Multi-Officer Response Procedures

Discussions of Exterior and Interior Breaching

Understanding that Active Killer Response is an Element of Hostage Rescue

Hallway and Staircase Movements

Fighting from Cover

Stealth to Contact

Entry Applications

Dynamic Entry Applications

Discussions of Limited Entry/ Breach and Hold/ Link-up Points Arrest Procedures